expenses if	expense amounts set out in lines 6-15 regardless of your actual expense are higher than the standards. Do not include any operating end do not deduct any amounts that you subtracted from your spouse	openses that you subtracted from income in lines 5 and 6 of Form

If your expenses differ from month to month, enter the average expense.

Note: Line numbers 1-4 are not used in this form. These numbers apply to information required by a similar form used in chapter 7 cases.

The number of people used in determining your deductions from income

Fill in the number of people who could be claimed as exemptions on your federal income tax return, plus the number of any additional dependents whom you support. This number may be different from the number of people in your household.

National Standards You must use the IRS National Standards to answer the questions in lines 6-7.

Food, clothing, and other items: Using the number of people you entered in line 5 and the IRS National Standards, fill in the dollar amount for food, clothing, and other items.

1.509.00

Out-of-pocket health care allowance: Using the number of people you entered in line 5 and the IRS National Standards, fill in the dollar amount for out-of-pocket health care. The number of people is split into two categories--people who are under 65 and people who are 65 or older--because older people have a higher IRS allowance for health car costs. If your actual expenses are higher than this IRS amount, you may deduct the additional amount on line 22.

Oth	er Necessary Expenses In addition to the expense deductions listed above, you are allowed your monthly expenses the following IRS categories.	for
16.	Taxes: The total monthly amount that you will actually pay for federal, state and local taxes, such as income taxes, self-employment taxes, social security taxes, and Medicare taxes. You may include the monthly amount withheld from your pay for these taxes. However, if you expect to receive a tax refund, you must divide the expected refund by 12 and subtract that number from the total monthly amount that is withheld to pay for taxes. Do not include real estate, sales, or use taxes.	$	1,241.77
17.	Involuntary deductions: The total monthly payroll deductions that your job requires, such as retirement contributions, union dues, and uniform costs.
	Do not include amounts that are not required by your job, such as voluntary 401(k) contributions or payroll savings.	$	79.58
18.	Life Insurance: The total monthly premiums that you pay for your own term life insurance. If two married people are filing together, include payments that you make for your spouse's term life insurance. Do not include premiums for life insurance on your dependents, for a non-filing spouse's life insurance, or for any form of life insurance other than term.	$	0.00
19.	Court-ordered payments : The total monthly amount that you pay as required by the order of a court or administrative agency, such as spousal or child support payments.
	Do not include payments on past due obligations for spousal or child support. You will list these obligations in line 35.	$_	0.00
20.	Education: The total monthly amount that you pay for education that is either required:
	as a condition for your job, or for your physically or mentally challenged dependent child if no public education is available for similar services.	$	0.00
21.	Childcare: The total monthly amount that you pay for childcare, such as babysitting, daycare, nursery, and preschool. Do not include payments for any elementary or secondary school education.	$	0.00
22.	Additional health care expenses, excluding insurance costs: The monthly amount that you pay for health care that is required for the health and welfare of you or your dependents and that is not reimbursed by insurance or paid by a health savings account. Include only the amount that is more than the total entered in line 7. Payments for health insurance or health savings accounts should be listed only in line 25.	$	0.00
23.	Optional telephone and telephone services: The total monthly amount that you pay for telecommunication services for you and your dependents, such as pagers, call waiting, caller identification, special long distance, or business cell phone service, to the extent necessary for your health and welfare or that of your dependents or for the production of income, if it is not reimbursed by your employer. Do not include payments for basic home internet and cell phone service. Do not include self-employment
